Overview

---

- ◆ Key steps in the PMR Process
- ◆ Types of activities for preparation funding
- ◆ Funding allocation: elements to consideration

Key Steps in PMR Process

Preparation Phase: Purpose and Types of Activities

Purpose of the Preparation Funding:

- ◆ To support Implementing Country Participants formulate Market Readiness Proposals

Types of Activities supported by Preparation Funding:

- ◆ Studies and analytical work
- ◆ Consultations (with relevant ministries, public and private entities and key stakeholders)
- ◆ Development of terms of reference for “readiness components”
- ◆ Organizing management arrangement for PMR operation
(e.g., via exiting coordinating bodies or establishing a cross-sectoral and functional working groups)
- ◆ Training and workshops

Allocation of Preparation Funding: Considerations (1)

Country Context...

◆ Implementing Country Participants:

- Have different circumstances and priorities
- Are at different stages of “readiness”

Allocation of Preparation Funding: Considerations (2)

Elements for consideration...

- ◆ Demonstration of a consultative process/engagement with relevant agencies and, as appropriate, other stakeholders
- ◆ Relevance to a country's overall mitigation strategy and development objectives
- ◆ Level of political support within the country
- ◆ Sound rationale behind the proposed activities for PMR funding

Process and Timeline

◆ Process

- Funding Application Form: After the PA approves the allocation of funding to an Implementing Country Participant, a process will be initiated to discuss a Funding Application Form between the Implementing Country Participant and the World Bank as a delivery Partner
- Fund Transfer Arrangement

◆ Timeline

- No deadline for submitting the Market Readiness Proposal; but it is expected that most countries will submit within a year of the funding allocation decision
