

PMR's TECHNICAL WORK PROGRAM: UPDATE ON CURRENT AND PLANNED ACTIVITIES

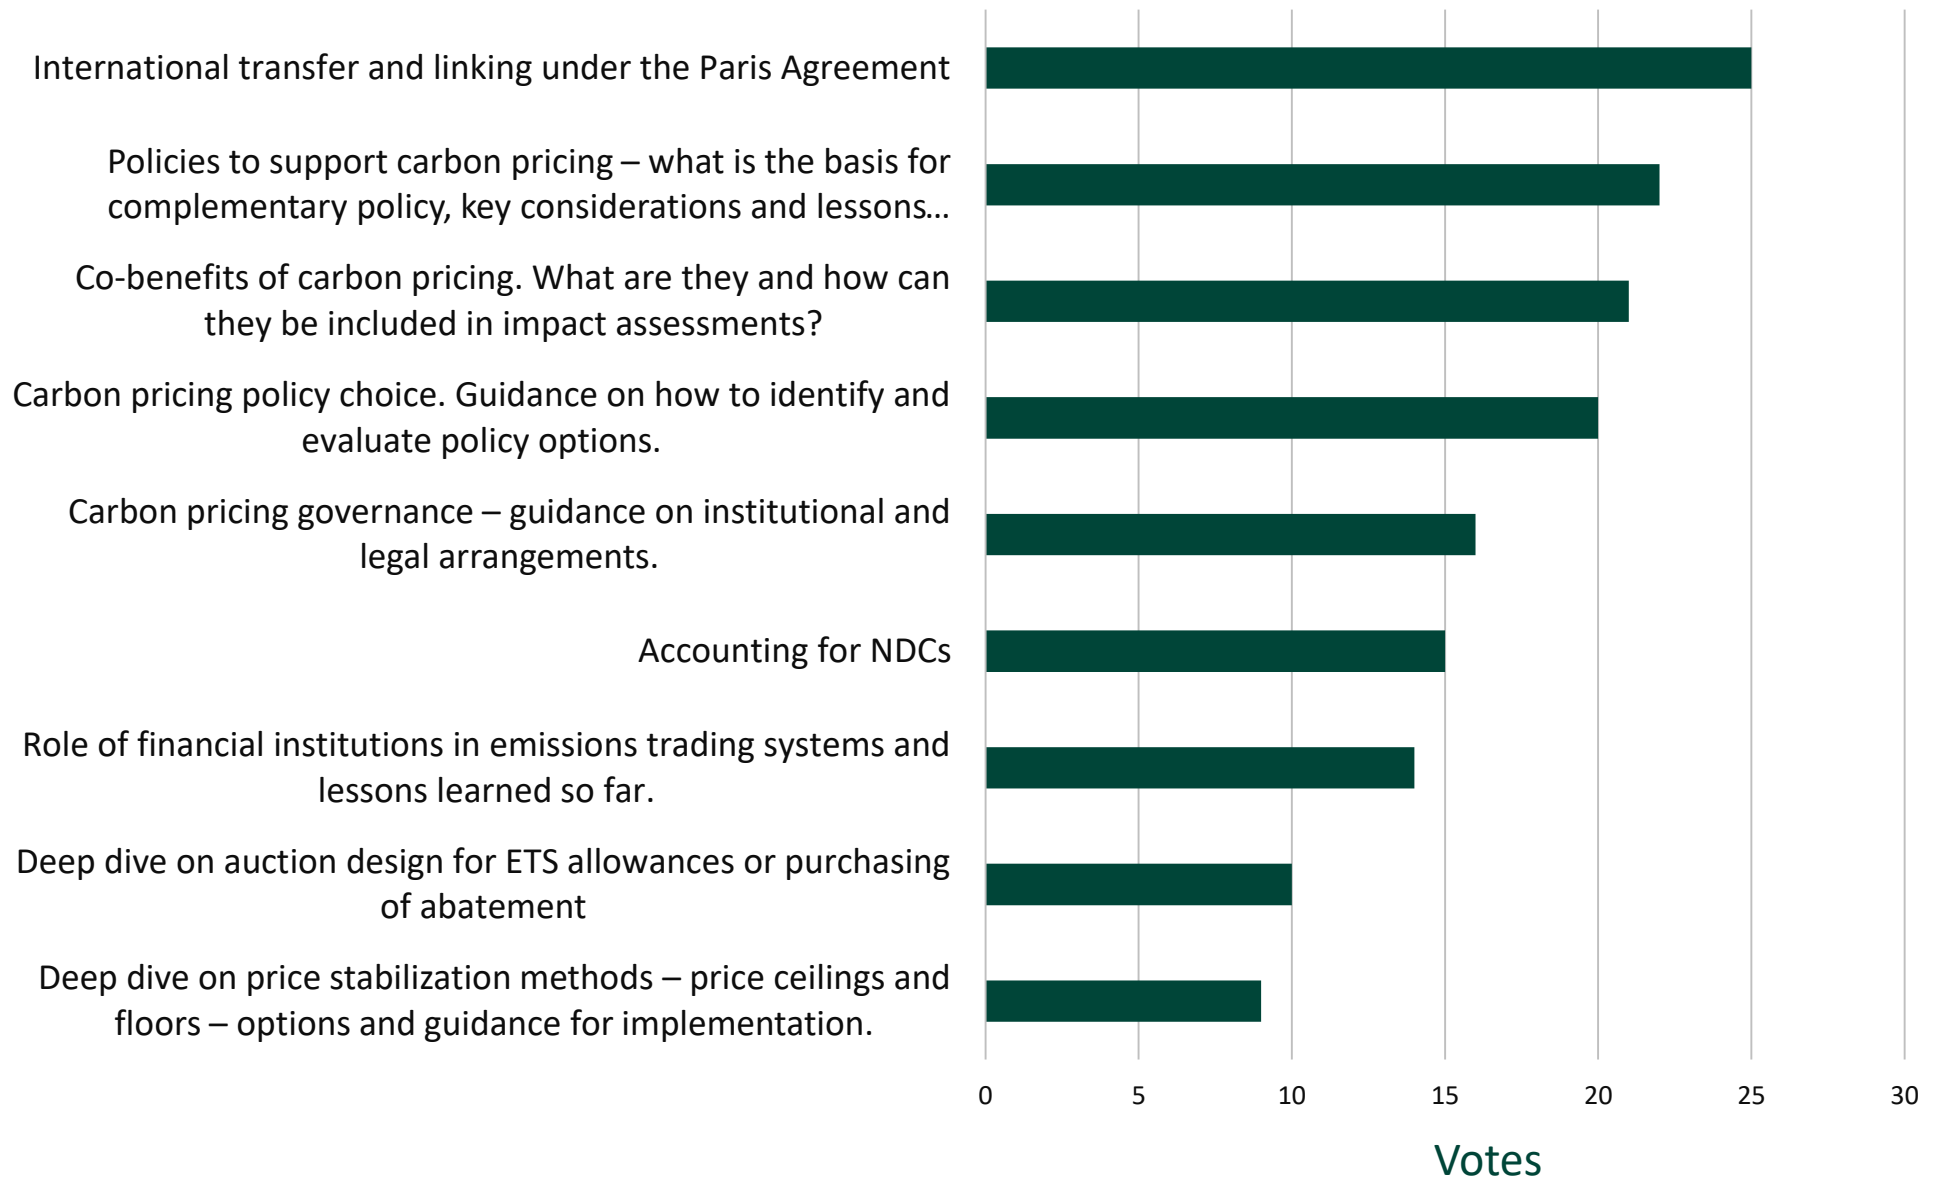

Daniel Besley
Coordinator, Technical Work Program
PMR Secretariat
World Bank

19th Meeting of the PMR Partnership Assembly
Buenos Aires, Argentina
October 23-25, 2018

Outline

- ◆ Activities underway and planned for FY19
- ◆ Activities under consideration for FY19 and beyond

Future topics for the TWP: Feedback from PA18

Activities underway & planned for FY19 – publications

- ◆ Guide on communicating carbon pricing in partnership with CPLC – Dec 2019
- ◆ Technical Note on verification and accreditation systems
- ◆ Technical Note on emissions measurement

Activities underway & planned for FY19 – publications

- ◆ Technical Note on use of revenue
- ◆ Guide to developing crediting systems
- ◆ Translate the BPMPR Readiness Training Guide (and videos) into Mandarin
- ◆ Report on the co-benefits of carbon pricing

Activities underway & planned for FY19 – training

- ◆ Development of a comprehensive online course on carbon taxation in partnership with UNITAR.
- ◆ Development of a face-to-face training course on carbon taxation with UNITAR.
- ◆ ETS training in Mexico
- ◆ Potential carbon tax training in Ivory Coast

Activities underway & planned for FY19 – other

- ◆ Workshop on voluntary action (PA19).
- ◆ Webinar on communicating carbon pricing (February 2019)
- ◆ Refreshing of working groups

Activities under consideration (FY19 and beyond)

- ◆ Feedback welcome!
- ◆ Re-vamping the e-learning course on ETS design
 - Based on ETS guide
- ◆ E-learning course on crediting
 - Based on crediting guide
- Integrate courses into a carbon pricing curriculum.
 - Could do in partnership with UNITAR.
- Above work based on popularity / demand

Activities under consideration (FY19 and beyond)

- ◆ Potential future workshops:
 - Use of carbon revenues
 - Communicating carbon pricing
 - Policy interaction

- ◆ Update the ETS Guide, particularly the case studies and examples

- ◆ Report on the governance of carbon pricing

PMR's POLICY ANALYSIS WORK PROGRAM: UPDATE ON CURRENT AND PLANNED ACTIVITIES

Daniel Besley
Coordinator, Policy Analysis Work Program
PMR Secretariat
World Bank

19th Meeting of the PMR Partnership Assembly
Buenos Aires, Argentina
October 23-25, 2018

Key Points

- ◆ Currently no further funding planned under the Policy Analysis Work Program.
- ◆ Focus is on completing the remaining 4 country projects
 - All are expected to be complete by the end of FY19
- ◆ Program level activities can be considered as part of the Technical Work Program

Country PAWP projects

Country	Description	Status
Chile	Modeling of policy options and developing implementation plan for NDC in energy sector	Completed
Colombia	Macro-economic modeling of carbon pricing instruments Modeling of ETS design options and design roadmap	Completed Completed
Costa Rica	Developing modeling framework, database, and technical capacity for exploring decarbonization pathways to achieve NDC target	Completed
Turkey	Marginal Abatement Cost curve tool (linked with CGE under MRP activity); Investors' perspective approach	Completed
Morocco	Bottom-up model with focus on the building sector (2030). Rapid assessment of potential carbon pricing options	Ongoing; expected to be complete Dec 2018 Ongoing; expected to be complete Dec 2018
Vietnam	Bottom-up energy model (power, industry), and Marginal Abatement Cost curve tool (2050)	Ongoing; expected to be complete end FY19
Thailand	Economic modelling of carbon pricing instruments including carbon tax, ETS and crediting mechanism to contribute to Thailand's NDC mitigation goal.	Ongoing; expected to be complete end FY19

THANK YOU